

El Dorado Irrigation District

Recycled Water Statement

The El Dorado Irrigation District currently produces and distributes recycled water to commercial and residential customers from both the Deer Creek Wastewater Treatment Plant and the El Dorado Hills Wastewater Treatment Plant. The amount of recycled water reported applies District-wide and is not attributable solely to this right.